Police arrest Laurel man in double shooting $5,000 reward for information about second suspect

Howard County police have made one arrest and are searching for a second suspect in a double-shooting that occurred in Laurel on Dec. 18. Detectives are offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the second suspect.

Davon Phillip Jones, 20, of Bridle Path Lane, has been charged with attempted murder, assault and handgun violations. He is being held without bond at the Howard County Detention Center.

Kaiyon Stanfield, 20, of Columbia remains in critical condition at Shock Trauma as a result of his injuries. Khalil Stanfield, 21, of Silver Spring is in serious, but stable condition at the same hospital. Both were shot during the incident. The two are believed to be cousins.

Police were called around 1:30 p.m. for a report of gunshots in the 9400 block of Woodsong Court. Officers arrived and found Kaiyon Stanfield in a car suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. They also located Khalil Stanfield a short distance away in the 9300 block of Daly Court, suffering from gunshot wounds.

Police found drugs at the scene and believe the incident may have been drug-related. Through investigation, police believe two suspects were involved in the incident.

Anyone with information should contact police at 410-313-STOP or HCPDcrimetips@howardcountymd.gov.
